

"Hey Pastor, I Have a Question"

Sunday, October 27, 2019

By Dr. Johnny Ellison, Senior Pastor

*Hey Pastor, I Have a Question...?
"Did Jesus Go to Hell?"*

Main Theme: During the time when Christ suffered, died and was resurrected, he also declared victory to enemies of our faith.

I. In Death He Died for Us: 1 Peter 3:18a

For Christ also suffered once for sins, the just for the unjust, that He might bring us to God being put to death in the flesh

II. In Resurrection He was Raised for Us: 1 Peter 3:18b
but made alive by the Spirit,

III. In Victory He was Verified for Us: 1 Peter 3:19-20

- i. Who were "Spirits in prison"
  1. Who these spirits are not? Are not original angels who fell in rebellion against heaven.
    - a. Isaiah 14:12-15
    - b. Ezekiel 28:16-17
    - c. Luke 10:17-20
    - d. Revelation 12:4, 7-9
  2. Who these spirits are? They are angels who intermingled with women on earth.
    - a. Genesis 6:1-4
    - b. 1 Peter 3:18-20
    - c. Jude 6
- ii. What was "preached?"
  1. Preach, proclaimed, made proclamation / κηρύσσω /. To preach, to herald, proclaim, declare (ANNOUNCE!!)
  2. Proclaimed and Announced What?
    - a. 1 Corinthians 15:25-27
    - b. Ephesians 1:21-22
- iii. So What?
  1. Christ has faced down death for us, and declared victory to our enemies, so we need not fear what is ahead for us.
  2. Our enemies know full well that, in Christ, we have victory. JESUS TOLD THEM TO THEIR FACES.
  3. Christ has already won victory over the most powerful entities in the universe. Know that in Him, you can walk in victory too.